DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. On 25 July, General Nicolae RADESCU presented to the American Ambassador in Lisbon, for transmission to the State Department in Washington, a request for a visa for himself and his suite. The request to the Ambassador asks for permission for one secretary and two aides to accompany the General, but the names of these subordinates are not given in the formal request. The secretary intended is Barbu ~~NICULESCU~~ ced, on whom previous reports have been made; the two aides are Brutus ~~COSTE~~ ced, former Rumanian charge d'affaires in Washington and Lisbon, and George ~~MUNTIANU~~ ced, former press attache in Madrid and Lisbon.

2. When the General arrived here in April it was his intention to stay as long as the Portuguese authorities would allow him. His change in plans is due to two causes:

a. The ready acceptance granted by State Department officials to Ferenc ~~RAGY~~ ced, whose position in Hungary RADESCU likens to his own in Rumania, and

b. The recently unleashed drive in Rumania proper against oppositionist elements, including the jailing of MANTU.
